A new nameplate for The Gazette in Montreal

« So Fresh. I love wines like this that show a purity of fruit – in this case, on the redder spectrum – but with a zippy acidity and freshness that goes along with the great length. Neither heavy nor over_oaked, this is a model of classic Bordeaux winemaking, and at a great price. Drink now-2012. Food pairing: white meats, Asian influenced vegetable stir-fry. »
